

TT 3: Exploitation and Abuse Case Studies

From IASC Saying No to Sexual Misconduct, 2020 and Interaction PSEA Basics Training Guide (2013)

Case study 1: Mr. Sanjit is a local driver contracted by the local government office that responds to disasters. He likes to talk about how he had sex with some of the program participants at the distribution site, particularly the young pretty ones.

Case study 2: Knowing that prostitution is legal in the local region, Mr. Shin offers to give money to a program participant in exchange for sexual favors. Mr. Shin works for an international NGO that is providing aid after disasters.

Case study 3: A driver for an international agency regularly provides rides in the official vehicle to village schoolboys traveling to school in a neighboring town, in exchange for him taking photographs of them posing naked.

Case study 4: A local DRR committee volunteer touches a teenage girl inappropriately while conducting community disaster risk reduction planning workshops.
