INVITATION TO BID (ITB) TO CONDUCT THE PRIVATE AGRICULTURE SERVICE PROVIDERS (PASP) STUDY:

PROCUREMENT REFERENCE# UG4130

Date of this ITB:	Monday 27th February 2023, 2023
Closing Date for Receipt of EOI's	Tuesday 14th March 2023, by 5:00 PM
Reference No.:	UG4130

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is leading a consortium of six partners to implement a six-year, USAID/Bureau for Humanitarian Assistance (BHA) funded activity to build resilience to shocks, enhance livelihoods, and improve food and nutrition security for vulnerable rural families in the Karamoja sub-region, North-eastern Uganda, since 2017. The program, named Nuyok (which means “it is ours” in the local language), covers Abim, Nakapiripirit, Nabilatuk, and Napak districts. Nuyok seeks to strengthen governance and gender equity; community capacity to manage shocks and stresses; traditional and diversified livelihood opportunities; and nutrition and health (including improved water, sanitation, and hygiene (WaSH)) of pregnant and lactating women (PLW), adolescent girls, and children under 5 years of age (CU5).

1. Purpose:

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Uganda seeks to invite interested, registered and competent bidders to conduct the Private Agriculture Service Providers (PASP) study.

2. Objectives and Scope:

To assess the barriers, enablers to adoption and implementation of the Private Agriculture Service Providers (PASP) fee-for-service model in communities.

3. Accessing application documents

CRS invites eligible bidders to request for the bid document through ug_procurementinquires@crs.org ONLY referencing the procurement reference# in the email subject. Bid document is available from Monday 27th March 2023.
