Source of All Goodness

Heavenly Father,
No one who has obeyed and taken up their cross has been sent away from you unsatisfied. You alone are God and the source of all goodness. Give us courage to keep our hands off worthless idols And our eyes on you. Because by your grace we are replenished.

You heal your saints. You refresh our souls. You send us out as messengers of your love. Let us be glad messengers of glad tidings. Let us be faithful servants of your Word. Nurture faith in our hearts so that we may serve those counted among the least of us.

Amen
