Kraków in the CAPITAL: 2016 World Youth Day Stateside

By Mary Beth Iduh, CRS Northeast/Mid-Atlantic Region

At the invitation of the Archdiocese of Washington, CRS was honored to co-sponsor Kraków in the Capital, a daylong pilgrimage hosted by several Mid-Atlantic dioceses and universities on July 30, 2016. It was attended by 1,300 young adult pilgrims from over 50 dioceses and it was the largest US celebration of World Youth Day to date! As an in-kind sponsor, CRS provided two inspirational catechesis talks in English and Spanish on the theme “Mercy Without Borders”, an educational simulation about the plight of unaccompanied children from Central America, and global discipleship prayers and resource materials.

Dr. Maryann Cusimano Love, a world-renowned international politics professor from Catholic University of America, and Mr. Andrés Arango, president of the National Charismatic Renewal Movement and the head of Hispanic Ministry in the Diocese of Camden addressed the audience. They lifted up how our Church shares mercy based on their own experiences with CRS overseas and encouraged Catholic young adults to get involved with CRS here in the U.S.

Jeff Mayer-Merion Mercy Academy

by Cheryl Mrazik, CRS Northeast/Mid-Atlantic Region

Jeff Mayer of Merion Mercy Academy, theology chair and faculty liaison for the CRS Global High School program, and Cheryl Mrazik co-facilitated a faculty workshop for 50 faculty and staff on August 24. Merion Mercy is a CRS Platinum School. Jeff traveled with a CRS delegation to Uganda in June, and shared his experiences with his colleagues. The workshop also included prayer and reflection, content on Catholic social teaching and CRS’ peacebuilding resources, and department planning time.

Crossing to the Side of Peace: A story from Rwanda

By Fr. Pablo Migone, Excerpt below from the PATHEOS INSIDER

Fr. Pablo Migone traveled on a CRS Diocesan Delegation trip to Rwanda and it renewed his faith. Please read Fr. Pablo's reflection on what he experienced during his visits to CRS programs in Rwanda. It is available in English and Spanish.

*" I traveled to Rwanda in July 2016 with Catholic Relief Services as part of a delegation. What I saw and heard from the people I met there renewed my faith in the power of forgiveness and reconciliation to create peace between people, between nations, and in oneself. #### Diocese of Charlotte CRS Diocesan Directors Host a Retreat for Faith Leaders in Social Ministry

As part of the CRS Capacity Building Initiative, on November 4th thirty parish social ministry leaders, representing both Hispanic and Anglo communities of the Charlotte diocese gathered in Maggie Valley, NC to continue their work of building a network for global and local social ministry in Western North Carolina. Hosted by CRS Diocesan Directors Joe Purello and CBI Animator Nick Haskell, the bilingual and bi-cultural parish leadership retreat focused on equipping folks to actively engage their communities in the pursuit of justice and the common good both globally and locally. Employing community organizing principles, attendees participated in training sessions that focused on 1 to 1 meetings and parish mapping to intentionally build capacity. They also experienced formation around Catholic Social Teaching principles, exploring theological reflections on "how the world should be" versus "how the world is." Deacon Robert Vigil, a CRS Global Fellow, guided the weekend with a truly gracious and pastoral presence. A highlight for Nick Haskell was being inspired by seeing "the bridge building and people willing to step outside of their comfort zones reaching across racial and cultural distinctions, and participants understand a new paradigm in parish social justice through relational engagement."

CRS University: Faculty Learning Commons Program for All Learners

CRS University has developed a new, high quality video about our Faculty Learning Commons program. It is designed for a university environment but open and free to all learners. The CRS Faculty Learning Commons provides educational resources and online modules to enrich the learning experience by tapping into CRS' expertise in global development and humanitarian response around the world. The educational resources place a special emphasis on the application of CRS' justice lens, integral human development model and opportunities for building global solidarity.

CRS' contribution to NCEA's Catholic Schools Week for January of 2017 with the theme of "Syrian Refugee Crisis" includes both High School and Elementary Resources.

Register online at <http://ghs.crs.org/content/little-flower-project> to receive an email linking you to our FREE ONLINE TOOLKIT.

50% of Syrian Refugees are CHILDREN

Children who need you to use your voice to raise awareness of their struggle.

At their core, Catholic Schools are called to serve the poor and vulnerable, uphold the dignity of human life and form disciples who bring about justice. In light of this call, the National Catholic Educational Association and Catholic Relief Services have come together in partnership to create a FREE "Syrian Refugee Toolkit" for download and use during Catholic Schools Week 2017.

Included in the FREE Toolkit are:

- A variety of prayers
- Videos for Middle and High School
- Elementary, Middle and High School Prayer Pilgrimages/Simulations
- A High School Prayer Service with Legislative Advocacy tools
- A Family Extension to send home
- PowerPoints
- And much more. . .

ADVENT RESOURCES

Our Advent reflections, activities and prayers invite the entire parish community to prepare their hearts to welcome Emmanuel, “God with us” (Matthew 1:23), into our world at Christmas.

Weekly Reflections for Families

Our weekly reflections are based on the Gospel readings for the Sundays in Advent. They connect the journey that brought Mary and Joseph to the stable with the journey of all those communities around the world that continue to encounter poverty. (Available in Spanish)

Holy Family, Refugee Family: Digital Advent Retreat

In Advent, we prepare our hearts to welcome Jesus at Christmas. This retreat invites participants to take ten minutes of the busyness of the season to pause and reflect on how we can welcome Christ into the world today.

Activities

The Gift of Hope Tree is an opportunity to invite children and families to consider what gifts the Holy Family might have needed when Mary gave birth to Jesus in a manger, and how those gifts compare to what people who live in poverty might need. They will assemble Gift of Hope Tree Ornaments, which feature gifts that donations to Catholic Relief Services provide to people around the world. This activity is a great addition to an intergenerational Advent festival or Christmas bazaar. (Available in Spanish)
