We pray for children, like Yuvi from Guatemala, that they may be given the opportunity to learn and grow in a safe, loving environment. And we pray for those children who have been forced to flee their homes, that they may find refuge and welcome.

Hail Mary, Lady of Mercy, cloak all those who suffer throughout the world in your mantle of love and peace. May we be for others the hands and feet of your Son, and may we see in others the face of Christ. Amen

Put your faith into action.

We pray for children, like Manyom and Akur from South Sudan, that they may be seeds of peace in a country torn by strife. We pray, too, that their communities will be able to plant seeds to feed those who cannot feed themselves.

Hail Mary, Lady of Mercy, cloak all those who suffer throughout the world in your mantle of love and peace. May we be for others the hands and feet of your Son, and may we see in others the face of Christ. Amen

Invite children to cut out each card, fold and adhere together with glue or tape. Then, read the prayers together.
