Catholic Relief Services' work is possible thanks to the generous support of private and public donors, the dedication of local partners, and the unwavering presence of Caritas and the local Catholic Church. Please read the latest CRS Global Emergency Update report on Catholic Relief Services' ongoing emergency response and recovery activities around the world. The report is also available in Spanish.

75th Anniversary: Actively Waiting

It's often said that hindsight is 20/20. Failures are amplified and successes taken for granted. But during Advent—the season of waiting and of expectation—we have a chance to look with fresh eyes upon God's tireless, and at times, seemingly slow work in our world as it unfolds in real-time.

The lesson of our 75 years isn't simply to reflect on our past, but to look with purpose at our future—recognizing the results we seek are rarely instantaneous. Often, we are called to live out the active waiting of Advent, to work patiently, lovingly and ever mindful that “we are prophets of a future not our own.”*

Who better to illustrate this reality than two long-time CRS staffers? Whether you're 37-year CRS veteran Michael Wiest or our current CEO, Sean Callahan, the lesson is the same—life-changing solutions take time, and good things happen to those who wait.

But waiting isn't a passive activity, as our history shows. It demands hard work and innovation. Perseverance, not just patience. As we near the end of our 75th year, we invite you to walk through our past once more. And reflect with these final two videos that envision the kind of future we all wait, and work, patiently for—one free of poverty, hunger and injustice.

CRS SOUTHWEST REGION NEWS

CRS SW STAFF MEMBER RECEIVES NFCYM AWARD

Marcos Martinez in the CRS Southwest Regional office recently received the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry (NFCYM) Gospel Values of Justice and Peace Award at their December conference in Tampa, FL. NFCYM presents multiple categories of awards biennially that recognizes women and men who have made significant contributions to the field of Catholic youth ministry.

The Gospel Values of Justice and Peace award goes to a person who has provided models and programs to educate the church community in fulfilling its responsibility to educate youth for justice and to call young people to action on behalf of others. Read more.

Human Trafficking Educational Modules from CRS University

Interested in the complexities of human trafficking? CRS University encourages you to explore 7 modules of curated Human Trafficking resources hosted on the CRS Faculty Learning Commons platform. Content explores the complex root causes, current manifestations, and effective responses to the issue that Pope Francis calls “a crime against humanity.” Modules are interdisciplinary, free to access, and are meant to be shared in order to form educated global citizens and advocates for the common good. Material was curated and developed as a collaboration between Christine Cervenak, JD, of the Center for Human and Civil Rights at the University of Notre Dame and Lucy Steinitz, PhD, CRS Senior Technical Advisor for Protection. Questions? Contact Danielle Roberts: Danielle.roberts@crs.org

Learn about CRS Student Ambassadors' Advocacy & Leadership

The CRS Student Ambassador program seeks to create a movement of college students who understand and champion CRS' work in support of the global common good and are equipped to mobilize their campus communities to take action. ### Catholic Relief Services' Current Prayer of the Month

As Catholics, Catholic Relief Services recognizes that prayer is of the utmost importance. In our mission to act with the Church to help the poor overseas, we begin with prayer. We first seek God's grace and guidance, and then we work, animated by the Spirit that connects us. Each month, CRS publishes a new prayer that we ask the Church to join us in praying. The current prayer of the month for December is Song of Our Lady of the Highways
